

Child & Vulnerable Adult Policy

The Catskill Public Library and Palenville Branch Library (the Library) strive to provide a welcoming and safe environment for all visitors.

We encourage children of all ages to visit our libraries and hope that they will find a warm, inviting place to be. Programs and resources are offered to make the library enticing to children, to help children enjoy their visits, and to develop a love of books, reading and libraries.

While the Library is concerned for the safety of children and vulnerable adults on Library property, the Library does not act "In loco parentis" (in place of parents), and Library staff are unable to provide parental-type oversight or guidance to children or vulnerable adults. A parent, guardian, caregiver (PGC) is responsible for monitoring the activities and managing the behavior of children and vulnerable adults during their Library visits.

For the protection and well-being of children and vulnerable adults visiting our libraries, the following policy has been established.

Children under 6

Children under the age of 6 must be under the supervision, at all times, of a parent, guardian or caregiver who is at least 12 years of age at all times. Adequate supervision requires that the responsible person be in close proximity to, or in sight of, the child at all times.

Children ages 6-9

Children 6-9 years old must be accompanied to the library by a parent, guardian, or a caregiver who is at least 12 years of age. The PGC must remain in the building and maintain the responsibility for the child. PGCs of this age group must notify staff of their whereabouts prior to leaving the children's services area for a different area within the building.

During story times or other programs, PGCs who do not attend the program with their child/children from this age group must remain in the building and must be visible when the program is over.

Children ages 10 to 17

Children ages 10 to 17 are old enough to use the library responsibly. If problems arise, they may be asked to leave or the parent, guardian or caregiver on record may be contacted. It is the responsibility of the PGC to be accessible to pick the child up when called.

Disruptive Behavior

If a child, of any age, behaves in a disruptive manner, even when they are accompanied by a responsible adult, they will be given a warning that they must correct their behavior or leave the Library.

If the child continues to be disruptive after this warning, then the Library Staff will ask the PGC to remove the child from the library. For children 10 or older, the Library Staff will contact the PGC and advise them that their child has been asked to leave the premises.

Vulnerable Adult

A vulnerable adult is an individual over the age of 18 who is mentally or physically challenged to a degree that may significantly impair that person's ability to provide adequately for his/her personal needs or manage his/her behavior without assistance.

Vulnerable adults must have a parent, guardian or caregiver 18 years of age or older with them while they are in the Library who can manage their behavior and provide adequately for their personal needs.

Physically challenged adults who are capable of providing for their own needs are welcome to remain in the library without supervision so long as a contact person is available in the event that the adult's health or safety is in doubt.

The Library does not have staff, staff training or State Certification to act as a childcare facility or as a substitute for trained staff or family for vulnerable adults. No public place, including the library, can guarantee the safety of children. In all instances, the parent, guardian or caregiver is responsible for their behavior.

During Library hours, when the safety of an unattended child or vulnerable adult is in doubt, Library staff will attempt to contact the PGC before calling 911. In the case of an immediate safety concern, staff will contact 911 first and then attempt to contact the PGC. Staff will stay with the person until help arrives.

Unattended Children After Closing Time

The Catskill Public Library and Palenville Branch Library will exercise appropriate procedures to ensure the safety of children when the Library is closing. PGCs must be aware of the Library's hours. It is the PGC's responsibility to make arrangements to pick up their child, or make advance arrangements to have their child picked up by a responsible adult by closing time.

In the event that a child under the age of 13 or a vulnerable adult is still at the Library after the Library closes to the public, the Person-In-Charge and at least one other staff member will wait up to 15 minutes before contacting 911.

For their protection, children under the age of 13 or vulnerable adults not picked-up 15 minutes after the Library closes will be placed in police custody. Attempts will be made during those 15 minutes to reach a PGC, but in no instance will staff take anyone home. If at any time staff are concerned for the safety of the child or vulnerable adult, they will contact 911 immediately.

Violations of the Child and Vulnerable Adult Safety Policy may result in suspension of library privileges for the individual and/or family.
