

PALENVILLE UPDATE: July 2023

June Final Updates:

"Movie Night for Grown-Ups" (65) had 11 attendees.

July News:

Great start to our Summer Reading Program (Week of July 10-15). In the 20 hours we were open that week, 168 kids came through the doors to register for the program! It was awesome! LOTS of new to us faces this year ☺
Currently, we have 221 kids registered.

Tiny Tots continues to be a highlight of my week!

Summer Reading Weekly Stats so far:

Craft Pack #1 (Groovy Butterfly Lantern): 165 registered so far

In-the-Library Event #1 (Far Out Galaxy Slime): 101 kids and their adults attended...it was a giant messy chaotic good time!

Craft Pack #2 (Bee Kind Wreath): 130 registered so far.

In-the-Library Event #2 (Flower Power Suncatchers): 65 registered so far.

We will have 2 more "Craft Packs" and 2 more "In-the-Library Events" for July...Will let you know how they were at next mtg.

In-House Afternoon Adult Activity (Friday, July 14): We did "Mandala Window Clings" – we had 12 attendees!

Pokemon Club for Kids hosted by one of our young patrons (Friday, July 14): 3 kids attended and plan to attend again next Friday.

Afternoon Matinee for Grown-Ups (Friday, July 21): "Are You There, God? It's Me, Margaret": Will let you know how it was at next mtg.

August Plans:

Summer Reading Continues!

Planning an adult afternoon craft, movie matinee for grown-ups, evening movie for grown-ups.

We did have a retired elementary school principal from out of the area stop in and tell us that he's never seen a library so vibrant with kids as ours! ☺
