AUGUST News:

I haven't done a full count on the number of kids who registered for our Summer Reading program yet...I just know there have been a whole lot of families in our building. And more keep coming ☺ ☺

Tiny Tots is fantastic –we are seeing around 10-15 kids weekly. Sadly, a lot of my kids are aging out and will be heading to school in the fall. I am VERY sad about this ☹ Parents are asking if we would consider adding an afternoon storytime since some of the kids will only be in school until noon. It's something to think about on our end.

Summer Reading Weekly Stats:

Craft Pack #4 (Good Vibe Bee Hive): 175 kits.

In-the-Library Event #4 (KindHEARTed Plushie): 66 kids and their adults attended!

Craft Pack #5 (Sprinkle with Kindness Sock Donuts- for ages 2-8 OR Tie Dye Pillow- for ages 9-13): 150 kits.

In-the-Library Event #5 (Colors of the Rainbow Treats and Experiments): 84 kids and their adults attended!

We will have 1 more "Craft Pack" and 1 more "In-the-Library Event" for August...Will let you know how it went at the next mtg.

SEPTEMBER Plans:

Taking a break for a little bit to get the library back in shape!

Normally, we do not plan any children's events in September. We will most likely, just start prepping for our Halloween Party in October and work on upcoming events for the Fall/Winter.

We will continue with our Events for Grown-Ups: Movies, Crafts, and a Make Your Own Ice Cream Sundae week!
